Transcendent Abscess Irrigation

Susan Okla

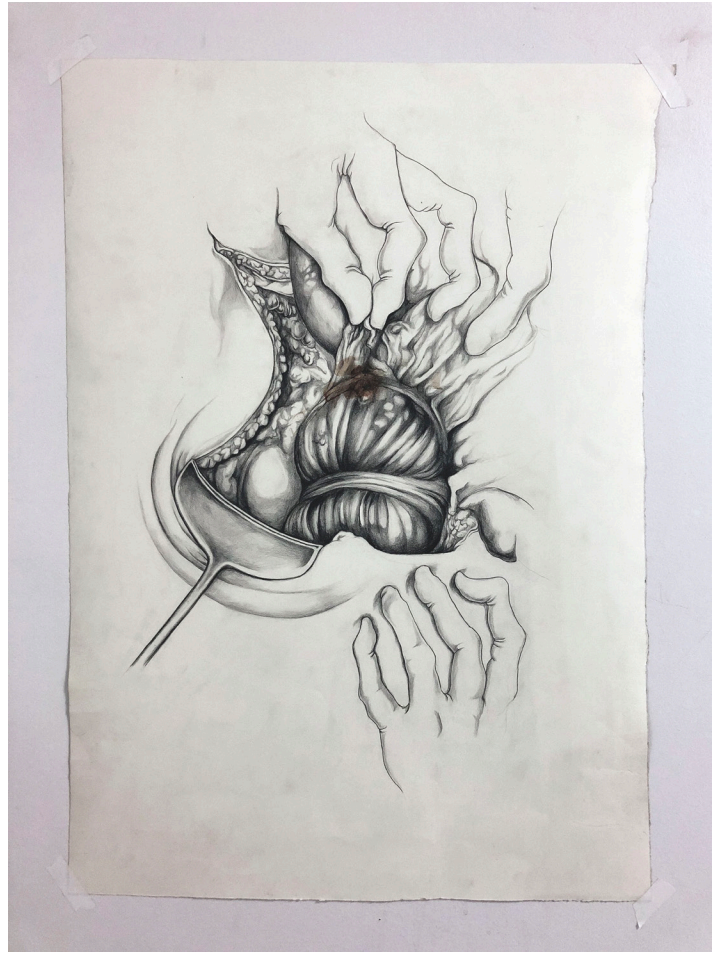

September 7, 2020

The goal of psychoanalysis is to turn neurotic suffering into normal human misery Obsession as attempt to solve ambivalence felt to be dangerous

Smoldering reek of shame Blood smiles out at me.

You can't turn it off Diversion to diversion to diversion to diversion

Septic shock

Excising ruptured vestigial structure

Spilt and Split

Transcendent Abscess Irrigation

Gagging on soggy sucked thumb rocking to sleep
makes you nauseous.
A maternal mal du mer.

Psychosomatic death Malocclusive
hyperstimulation Ragequiver upon re-dis-covering the same tender pinkness under clawed off scabs

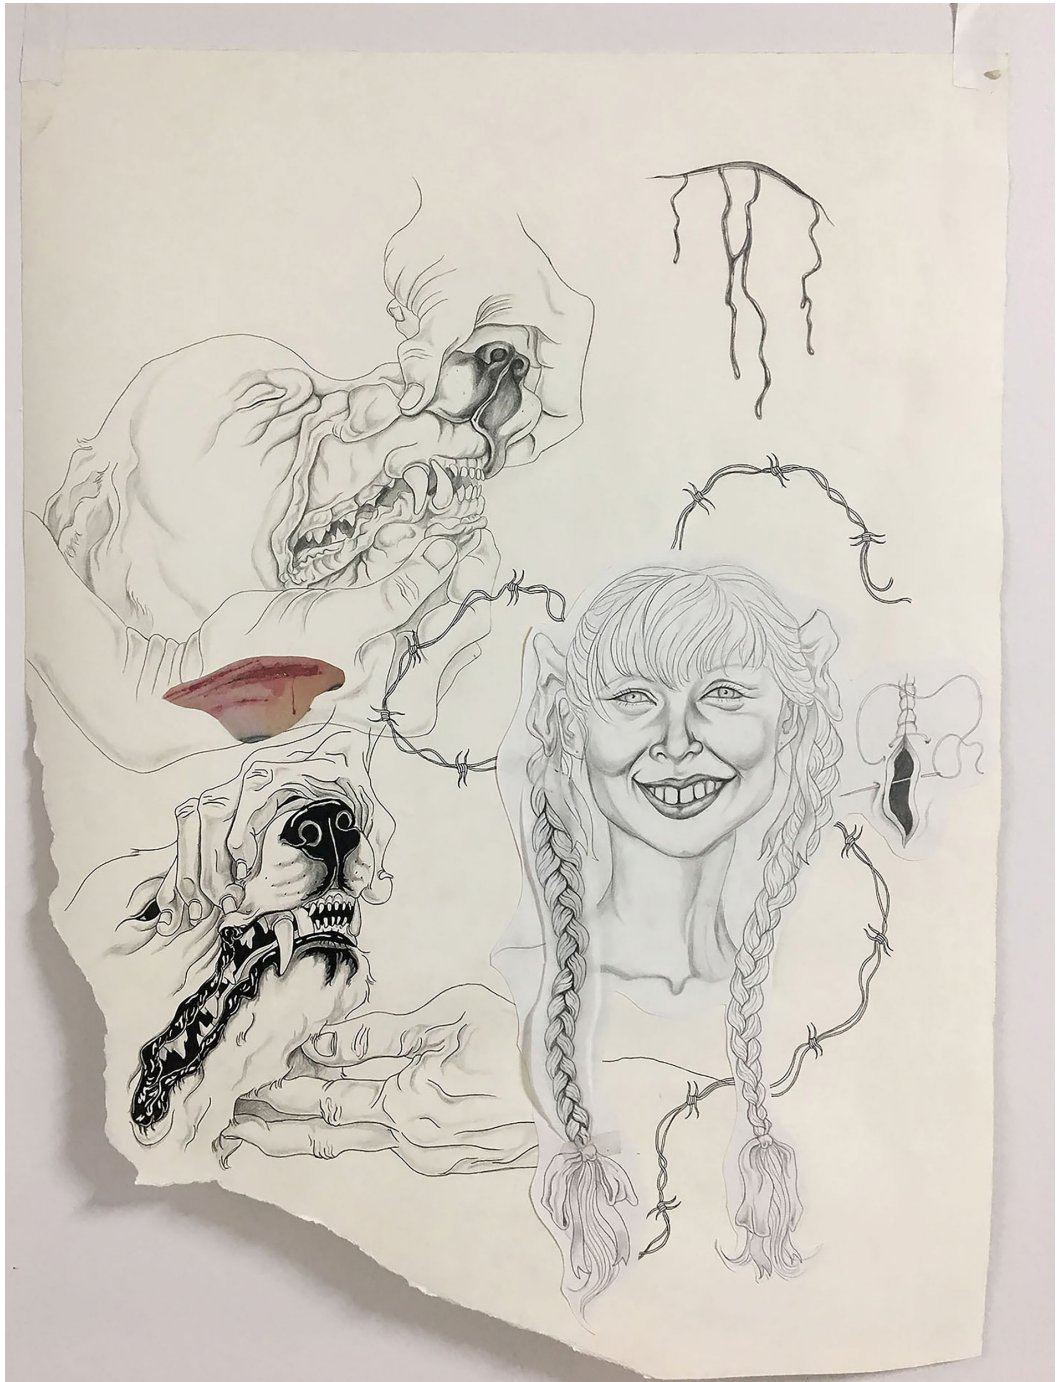

Transcendent Abscess Irrigation

Do you consider anguish a fulfilled means of existence?
Do you think your anguish must last forever?

It can be vibrant

It can be beautiful

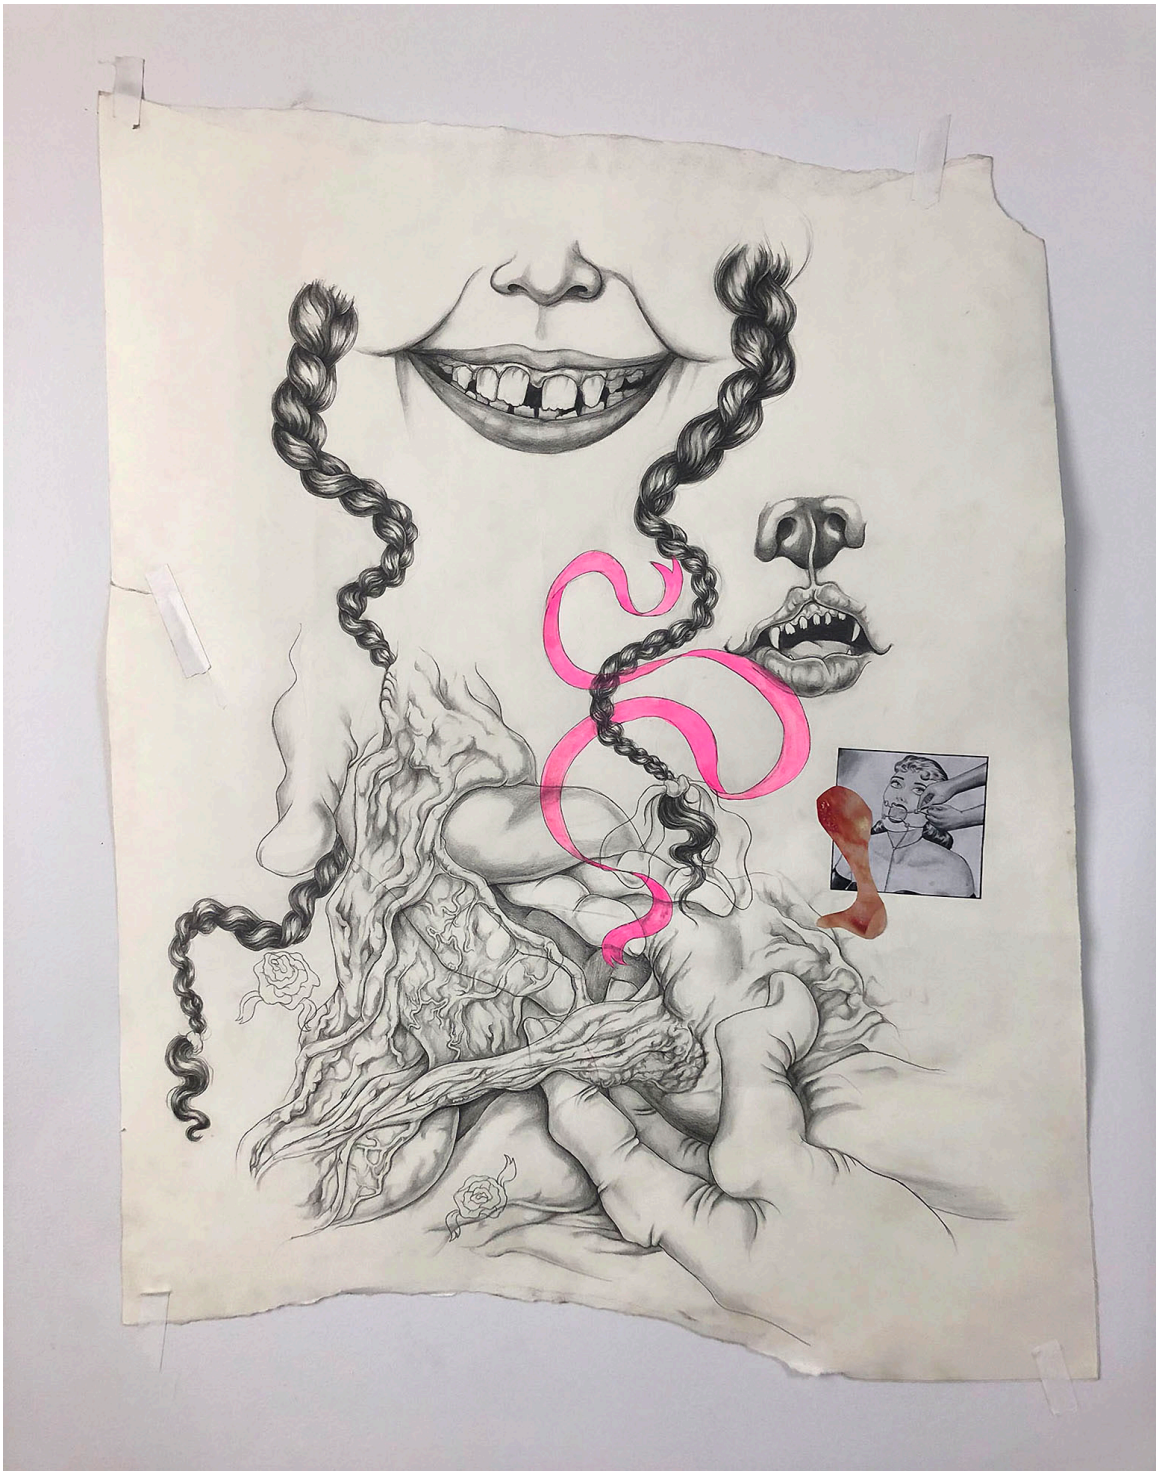

Identification with the aggressor
Choke Chain
Anger thinly hidden like dog's teeth

Dissections
and multitudes Softly splitting open in thrumming
dark False, miniature

Paper-deaths
In stillness,
Infinitesimal graspings
And heavy-eyed dolor

Transcendent Abscess Irrigation

If you're hurled into a ravine you can devise a rope
But you might have to cut off a limb

Earth has no sorrow heaven cannot heal

What is sacred?
What is a curse?
Every day we're in hell
Have fun or die trying

Transcendent Abscess Irrigation

Pupuration
Strangulated
Enveloped in a labial silence Buzzing rhythms of flesh stretched and rent

Tumescent sore
a redolent opening Stop hitting yourself!

Fractured selfhood

Disrupted form
