

Return to Acid Planet - Vol 3

Marshall Applewhite

May 19, 2022

Detroit based producer/DJ, Marshall Applewhite is a man of many hats. His aliases include OktoRed, Cocky Balboa, Star Machine and Secret Shower, to name a few. His sound is what one may call tangential, diverging from expected norms and keeping true to the essence of the futurist movement from which techno originates. One can expect to find nuance in his live set, setting a mood or feeling with flaunting tempos, in deep contrast to many of his genre's formulaic counterparts. His sound, albeit jarring at times, encompasses the gritty nature of the city he was brought up in. Slow low, acrid, low frequency soundscapes are all a part of what makes Applewhite unique in an overpopulated world of generic music. With a slew of releases out on Detroit Underground, How To Kill, Clan Destine, Scuffed, Late Nite Munchie, Colundi and his own labels YoSucka! and Junted, as well as sample packs for both Sounds.com and Splice, Marshall is showing no sign of slowing down. If edm is drug music, Marshall Applewhite is the anti drug. Every 16 year old on molly would run from this stuff. Every person who understands underground dance music though, they will get it, they will love it.

This 60 minute sound collage is a dedication to Marshall Applewhite's favorite sci-fi and space horror flicks.
