aleena - anthology coffee

during the summer of 2025 i photographed models in detroit bathrooms. i shot abt 15+ rolls of film and in 15 bathrooms total I think. the inspo came from the insta page “detroitbathrooms” it was a really fun time and didn’t take too long and I love everyone in the pictures. <3 all shot on film with the exception of one photograph on a canon camcorder from like 2010 or something. I love my city a lot. thank u so much for everything, everyone.
