

Theresa Ndrejaj January 2, 2023

Astrology 2023

Quarter One

[https:// runnerdetroit
.run](https://runnerdetroit.run)

On January 1, Venus and Pluto meet in Capricorn and you may be digging up family heirlooms. Venus enters Aquarius on January 2, bringing a logical approach to love. A Full Moon in Cancer arrives on January 6. The Moon in its domicile wants to nurture the Sun's Father wound. Shortly after, the Moon in Cancer opposes the Sun and Mercury in Capricorn on January 7. Repressed words may come to the surface, better out than in.

Mars in Gemini finally stations direct on January 12. The retrograde shadow period lasts until March 16 and while the stagnancy may feel lifted, tread slowly and use this time to reflect on the lessons of this retrograde that began at the end of October.

Venus in Aquarius makes a square to Uranus in Taurus on January 13. We may feel the need to break free from stifling relationship dynamics. On January 18, the sun in Capricorn will make a conjunction to Pluto bringing corruptions to light. Mercury in Capricorn, which went retrograde at the end of December, will station direct.

The sun enters Aquarius on January 20 and the mood will be less punitive and more humanistic. The Aquarius New Moon arrives January 21 and we'll be opening our hearts up to friendships and social circles. Venus and Saturn in Aquarius will meet on January 22. The independence sought earlier may feel extra isolating now.

Venus will ingress into Pisces on January 27 and Aquarian compassion will melt into Neptunian idealization. After all of this we deserve a little bit of fantasy, take it for what it is.

On February 4 Venus in Pisces will clash with Mars in Gemini. Confusion will ensue over aloof attitudes. The Full Moon in Leo occurs on February 5. Big love Leo Moon will nudge us to nurture the feelings that the Aquarius Sun rationalized away.

On February 10 Mercury and Pluto will come together for one last Dad Chat in Capricorn. Mercury ingresses into Aquarius on February 12, ideas get irreverent. Venus in Pisces will be conjunct with its Modern ruler, Neptune on February 15. Love becomes poetry.

While Saturn finds its way out of Aquarius giving us a final taste of his boot, the planet of reward and punishment makes a conjunction with the Sun in Aquarius on February 16. The Sun won't let this lesson pass by unseen.

The sun moves into Pisces on February 18. This will be a good time to take stock of the bad habits you wished to leave behind in the new year. The New Moon in Pisces arrives on February 20. Pisces lies in the depths of the zodiac. Whatever you find down there will be the theme of this lunar cycle.

Venus speeds things up when it enters Aries on February 20. You may feel motivated to make all the Piscean day-dreams a reality when Venus makes a conjunction to Jupiter on March 1. Mercury and Saturn check-in on March 2 reminding you to stay on track. Next, Mercury enters Pisces and thoughts get foggy. Pisces is the zodiacal equivalent of PLUR, just go with the flow.

A Full Moon in Virgo arrives March 7. Virgo would like to kindly remind you of the promises you made to yourself during the New Moon. Shortly after, everyone between the ages of 28-31 will sigh in relief as Saturn finally leaves Aquarius and enters Pisces on March 8.

March 25 is the day that we have all been waiting for. Mars finally leaves Gemini where it's been since August, and mostly in retrograde movement. Mars enters Cancer and we can finally wrap up the martian wounds of the last 8 months.

Quarter One

Astrology 2023

Theresa
Ndrejaj
January
2, 2023